

Domínios	Objetivos/Metas Curriculares	Conteúdos/Temas
LISTENING	To stimulate students' interest in learning To develop necessary skills to communicate in English To develop English vocabulary through constant exposure to language	Lexis: people at school, vacation, things in the classroom, places at school, member of the family, parts of the body, daily activities, feelings, actions, greetings, days of the week, months of the year, seasons, jobbies, places, parts of the day, time, numbers, clothes, numbers 1-20, food, pets, rooms of a house, natural places, leisure activities, animals
READING	To encourage learning through creative and motivating activities To contribute to the holistic development of children
WRITING	To meet the needs of diverse learning levels, deepening students' abilities
SPEAKING PRODUCTION	To promote positive attitudes toward cultures, languages, customs, and speakers	Grammar: actions in the present, be, can, yes/no short answers, where?/what?/how?, adjectives, there is/are, prepositions of place, on + days of the week, questions and negatives, want to, like/don't like, can/can't, personal pronouns, actions in simple presente and progressive, articles a/an, descriptive adjective + noun, in + months, like/love/prefer, have/has, may for permission, opposite adjectives, plurals, many, ordinals
SPEAKING INTERACTION	To develop life-long competitiveness To develop the ability for permanent learning
LEXIS AND GRAMMAR	To develop group work habits To develop solidarity among peers and positive relationships in the classroom
INTERCULTURAL DOMAIN	To ensure that students are autonomous in their learning process, by teaching them to obtain the necessary information, resolve doubts, and reach consensus on the final product as a team, with the supervision of the teacher	